

S.I. No. 165/1956 — Factories (Certificates of Fitness of Young Persons) Regulations, 1956.

S.I. No. 165/1956:

FACTORIES (CERTIFICATES OF FITNESS OF YOUNG PERSONS) REGULATIONS, 1956.

FACTORIES (CERTIFICATES OF FITNESS OF YOUNG PERSONS) REGULATIONS, 1956.

I, WILLIAM NORTON, Minister for Industry and Commerce, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by subsection (8) of section 80 of the Factories Act, 1955 (No. 10 of 1955), hereby make the following regulations :—

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Factories (Certificates of Fitness of Young Persons) Regulations, 1956.

(2) These Regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, 1956.

2. Every examination under section 80 of the Factories Act, 1955 (No. 10 of 1955), of a young person shall, except where otherwise authorised or directed in writing by an inspector, be carried out at a place to be named by the certifying doctor or other registered medical practitioner, as the case may be (hereinafter referred to as the doctor) save that, where there are five or more young persons employed at a factory, the place of examination shall, if the occupier of the factory so requires, be the factory.

3. For the purpose of an examination conducted at a factory, the occupier of this factory shall provide for the exclusive use of the doctor on the occasion of such examination a room properly cleaned and adequately warmed and lighted and furnished with a screen, a table with writing materials and chairs.

4. The employer of the young person to be examined shall afford to the doctor adequate facilities for inspecting any process, operation or work in which such young person is or is intended to be employed.

5. The doctor shall issue his certificate and indicate his decisions by entries in the general register and where, in accordance with Regulation 2 of these Regulations, an examination is conducted elsewhere than at the place of employment of the young person concerned, the employer of the young person shall make arrangements for the register to be taken, for the use of the doctor, to the place where the examination is to be conducted and to be returned as soon as practicable to the place where the register is normally kept :

Provided that where the doctor issues a certificate in respect of—

(a) employment in more than one factory in the occupation of the same occupier, or

(b) employment with any employer in building operations or works of engineering construction, the certificate shall be in the form indicated in the Schedule to these Regulations and shall be attached to the general register.
