Dear James,

Paul Maher is my name and I am a member of the Committee of the Garda Historical Society. The membership of the society comprises of both serving Gardai and civilians. We are a group of history enthusiasts with an interest in Police history before and after Independence.

We are not an official Garda Unit nor do we carry out investigations of any description. We produce the Garda Gazette which includes articles on events and people with a police theme and we organise lectures and exhibitions. Please visit our website to get an idea of what we do.

Should you wish to join our society then we would be more than happy to facilitate you and to ensure that you get notification of forthcoming events.

I wish you well with your worthwhile endeavours and may I recommend that your enquiry be forwarded to the Garda Siochana.

With every good wish,
Paul Maher
